Plenary and Conclusion

This year's weekend school will be held from lunchtime, Saturday 24th January until lunchtime on Sunday. It is held at Brunel Manor in Torquay.

The magnificent Manor and its gardens were designed by Isambard Kingdom Brunel to be his home. He discovered the area while surveying for the Great Western Railway.

Accommodation and meals can be provided from Friday evening through to Sunday lunchtime.

We will be joined by Co-operators and Labour Party members from across the whole South West.

The Manor is easily reached by public transport.

Situated on the A379 coastal road between Torquay and Teignmouth. On site car parking.

By rail to Torquay or Newton Abbot, then bus or taxi.
