

Community Britain Campaigns Officer

Fixed term: 18 month contract

Location: London or home-based with some travel.

Hours: 35 hours per week

Salary: £35,609 (London Weighting) / £33,286 (Outside London)

Benefits: Pension contributions, cycle to work, Season ticket loan, income protection scheme, generous annual leave

Purpose of role

The Co-operative Party launched Community Britain campaign in January 2025. This campaign seeks to promote the social, economic and political power of communities, and encourage the political system to take seriously the need for increased community power.

The purpose of this new 18 month role in the Party is to develop and deliver a range of campaigning activity to support Community Britain, including a comprehensive visits and events programme.

This will include liaising with politicians at all levels to highlight the best community projects in the UK, and support the Party in the organisation and delivery of events to promote and further the campaign.

Key accountabilities

- Plan, coordinate and deliver a range of campaigning activities to further the aims of the Community Britain campaign
- Develop and deliver a comprehensive visits programme, including:
 - Identifying community projects across the UK
 - Liaising with projects and visiting politicians and staff teams
 - On the day visit management
- Support the communications team in producing strong content from events and visits, including:
 - Social media content
 - Press (including local press)
 - Member communications
- Monitor political and policy developments across communities in order to identify future opportunities for campaigning
- Support the organisation and delivery of the Co-operative Party's events programme
- Support the development of Community Britain publications and reports

co-operative party

Key relationships

- Head of Politics, General Secretary, Communications team and wider staff team at the Co-operative Party
- Co-operative politicians at all government levels, including in Wales and Scotland, and respective staff teams
- Key campaign groups and policy stakeholders
- Co-operative and Labour movement organisations.

Key experience, knowledge and skills

Essential

- Experience organising and delivering political visits
- Event organisation and management experience
- Ability to effectively identify political opportunities to support campaign aims
- Excellent verbal and written communications skills
- Share co-operative values and principles

Desirable

- Experience filming short clips for social media