

Ian Lindley

Region

North East & Cumbria

Co-operative Party Experience

Ex committee member Northumberland

Stood as cooperative candidate for Westmoreland (unitary) authority in first election (Alston)

Stood as cooperative candidate for Morpeth Stobhill in election for Northumberland county council this year.

Co-operative Movement Experience

See above

Decades long membership and promotion via coffee mornings etc

Governance Experience

Ex Northumberland county cabinet member 2007 to 2017

Ex Tyne and wear fire officer

Chair of Numerous organisations including Stobhill community forum and Morpeth action group which I founded and remain successful organisations delivering benefits to the community

Election Statement

I am committed to the cooperative movement and feel strongly that this is the way to develop our mixed-economy system in a way that works for people and provides a balance workable within the system existent.